

Today's Math 1 Agenda

1. Find a seat at the table labeled with your class.
2. Coach Rose will be the teacher assigned to block 1, Ms. Barger will be the teacher assigned to block 3, and Ms. Cummins will be the teacher assigned to block 4, but Ms. Barger will circulate at all times.
3. Your block assigned teacher will take attendance (teachers it is in your folder)
4. Remember that Ms. Barger will be circulating throughout the room at all times. You are to be on task. You have lots to work on.
5. If you have not taken the Unit 5 Test, you must immediately go see Ms. Barger and take the test.
6. You may work on the following three things in any order:
 - a. Mathematicians Are Like Me poster - due on Friday - the assignment is in Google Classroom and should already be started. If you finish, you can submit it on Google Classroom
 - b. City Map Project - you began this yesterday. This is due to me tomorrow. If you were absent yesterday or lost it, your block teacher has extras in their folder.
 - c. Test Corrections - you can find your released Unit 5 test in your email. You also will need your free response answers, which your block teacher has in their folder. You will also need a test correction form, which your block teacher can provide you. Test corrections are due November 26 (the day you return from Thanksgiving break).
7. If you finish part a, b, and c completely, ask your assigned block teacher for the scatter plot worksheet and complete.
8. If you finish this, please read a book silently. You may do read theory.
9. All teachers have been given the following discipline rules:
 - a. Each student it to be given only 1 warning to remain on task. After 1 warning, please write their name on a list for AHL. If student continues to be off task, please alert Ms. Barger to discipline further.
 - b. Students may not at any time be playing a game on their computers.
